Zacatecas horse dancing, or Baile de Caballos, is a deeply rooted cultural tradition showcasing skilled horses.

Billy Rodriguez is the event owner, along with his family, and Rancho Uva Blanka Family Wines.

There were 72 horses performing at the Zacatecas Horse Dancing Show, with the original goal of 40 horses.

There were 500 tickets sold, plus another 100 which included riders, sponsors, exhibitors, and vendors, which put them a little over 600 tickets sold.

With the positive response, the future goal is to possibly expand the event to a 3-day show.
